Proceedings (In Chambers): Order to Show Cause

Absent a showing of good cause, an action must be dismissed without prejudice if the summons and complaint are not served on a defendant within 90 days after the complaint is filed. FED. R. CIV. P. 4(m). Generally, defendants must answer the complaint within 21 days after service (60 days if the defendant is the United States). FED. R. CIV. P. 12(a)(1).

In the present case, it appears that one or more of these time periods has not been met. Accordingly, the Court, on its own motion, orders plaintiff(s) to show cause in writing on or before January 12, 2023, why this action should not be dismissed as to the applicable defendant(s) for lack of prosecution. Pursuant to FED. R. CIV. P. 78, the Court finds that this matter is appropriate for submission without oral argument. The Order to Show Cause will stand submitted on that date.

Filing of the following on or before the date indicated above will constitute a satisfactory response to the Order to Show Cause:

- ☐ Proofs of service of summons and complaint on all defendants for whom such documents have not yet been filed;
- ☒ An appearance by all defendants who have been served or an application for entry of default pursuant to Rule 55(a) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (as to defendant Craig Lawler);
- ☐ A request that the clerk enter default judgment or motion for entry of default judgment pursuant to Rule 55(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
